PRESS RELEASE 030317:

IMMEDIATE ISSUE

To: The Press/Media Outlets/General Public

From: The Administration of Tubman University (TU)

Thru: Public and Media Relations Department, Division of Institutional Advancement

Date: March 7, 2017

The Administration of William V. S. Tubman University advises the public, internal TU Community, alumni, friends and detractors, of adherence to the institution's core values, principles of operations, and policies regarding conduct, whether written, spoken, or manifested action.

William V. S. Tubman University core values portray who and what we are. Germane to conduct, we remind ourselves that We are a caring, accessible community characterized by excellence, integrity, civility and ethics. Our value on being learner-centered implies life-long learning, applying to all in the TU community of students, alumni, faculty, staff, and administrators. Principle Six of our Principles of Operation which guide our conduct, states Tubman University operations shall promote mutual respect and ethical behavior that lead to positive outcomes. Tubman University's policy on violence and disruption of campus life does not condone abuse, belligerence, hooliganism, profanity, nor threats (physical and/ or psychological). Slander and libel are also intolerable and unbecoming, with deference to University disciplinary processes and Liberian laws.

Therefore, slanderous, libelous communications and physical violence, may be subject to rigorous pursuit.
